ADDRESS OF VICTORIA TO THE PARLIAMENT OF GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, August 11.

Parliament was prorogued to-day by royal commission. The following message from the Queen was read by the Lord Chancellor:

"My Lords and Gentlemen: I am commanded by the Queen to dispense with your further attendance in Parliament. Her Majesty has directed me to say that she thanks you for the liberality manifested by you in providing the means for the public service. Her Majesty has also directed me to say that she thanks you for the readiness you have shown to make provision for the payment of the annuities to the members of the royal family. The Queen has commanded me to inform you that the Commissioners appointed to treat with the United States, for the settlement of the Alabama claims and other questions between England and the United States, have concluded a treaty for the settlement of those questions, which has been duly signed and sealed, and which will be laid before Parliament for its consideration, without any unnecessary delay. The Queen has also commanded me to inform you that the Commissioners appointed to treat with the Government of the Dominion of Canada, for the purchase of the territories, which by the Queen's command were transferred to that Government, have concluded a treaty for the purchase of those territories, which will be laid before Parliament for its consideration, and to which the Queen trusts that Parliament will be able to give its assent. It is the wish of her Majesty, in the exercise of the prerogative of the Crown, that this territory may be annexed to the Dominion of Canada, and that the inhabitants of the territory may be admitted into the Union on such terms as Parliament may think fit to sanction. It is the duty of the Queen

The South at the Recent Election.

From the Nashville (Tenn.) Whig, August 7.

We entertain no doubts of the election of Governor Brownlow and a majority of Congressmen in this State. In fact it seems to the reporters of Nashville that the election is over, and that Brownlow is the acknowledged Governor. The battle was fought on Thursday, and the victory is complete. The party which desired to conform to the national platform of Democracy, on the single issue of negro suffrage, is beaten. It is the party of Andrew Johnson, of Parson Brownlow, of Emerson Etheridge, of Horace Maynard, of Andrew Ewing, of Judge Trigg, of Judge Cooper, of Judge Nelson, of Judge Patterson, of Judge Deaderick, of Judge Temple, of Judge Caruthers, of Judge Reese, of Judge Swan, of Judge Cate, of Judge Key, of Judge Lea, of Judge Heiskell, of Judge Thomas, of Judge Hall, of Judge Fowler, of Judge Hawkins, of Judge Nicholson, of Judge Estes, of Judge Wisdom, of Judge Hall, of Judge Cooper, of Judge Hall, of Judge Cooper, of Judge Hall, of Judge Cooper
